

Hamilton Chapter of the National Association of Japanese Canadians (NAJC) is the successful recipient of the NAJC Community Development Grant aimed at increased community renewal in the local Japanese Canadian community.

Our goal is to create an updated community contact list. The contact list will be a vital tool for communication, sharing and planning in order to focus on community cohesion and development for the betterment of future Japanese Canadian generations. We hope to bring together all Japanese Canadian community groups and individuals across Hamilton and the Golden Horseshoe.

Please provide the following information:
